Beautiful Devotional Book Explores Jane Austen's Beloved Prayers

"This is the devotional I didn't know I was missing. Dodge connects stories from Austen's life and the pages of her novels to her prayers and Scripture in fresh and insightful ways. An inspiring and illuminating look at the life and faith of a beloved author."

—Anne Bogel, author and blogger, Modern Mrs. Darcy, I'd Rather Be Reading: The Delights and Dilemmas of the Reading Life

Bloomington, MN—Bethany House presents Praying with Jane: 31 Days Through the Prayers of Jane Austen by Rachel Dodge, a new devotional book based on Jane Austen's prayers.

While much has been written about Jane Austen's life and novels, less is known about her spiritual life or the three prayers she wrote. In Praying with Jane, Christian readers and Jane Austen fans can explore Austen's prayers in an intimate devotional format as they learn about her personal faith, her Anglican upbringing, and the spiritual truths found in her novels.

Jane Austen's faith comes to life in this beautiful 31-day devotional through her exquisite prayers, touching biographical anecdotes, and illuminating scenes from her novels. Each daily entry includes examples from Austen's own life and novels, as well as key Scripture verses, ideas for personal application, and an invitation to "pray with Jane."

"Whether you're familiar with Jane Austen or not, you'll be blessed by this intimate look at her prayers. Praying with Jane drew me closer to Jesus—thank you, Rachel Dodge!"

—Joanna Weaver, author, Having a Mary Heart in a Martha World: Finding Intimacy With God in the Busyness of Life
